

ROCK ON BABY

©1993 K. Selcer

Rock on baby, rock on, it never seems to turn out the way we want it.
Rock on baby, rock on, nice & steady.
Live your life never looking back and pick a place to go.
Then keep on rockin' 'til you can't rock no more.

It's written all over your face,
 I said the wrong thing once again.
Seems like every time I turn around,
 I hurt you more my friend.
I feel your anger right through the tears,
 like a dagger in my heart,
And I wish I could keep this foolishness
 from driving us apart.

There's something that came between us,
 nothing that we had planned.
Nothing we could have known about,
 we're no longer hand in hand.
I'm tired of being sick about it.
 You're sick of being tired.
And I know you wish you could move along and make it easy, make it all easy.

Well, Rock on baby, rock on, it never seems to turn out the way we want it.
Rock on baby, rock on, nice & easy.
Live your life never looking back and pick a place to go.
Then keep on rockin' 'til you can't rock no more.

I'm goin' back to the city,
 where I was born & raised.
I'm goin' for a visit,
 I'm goin' to relive some old days.
I'm tryin' to understand
 where I am comin' from,
And tryin' to understand where I am goin', goin' without you. So.....

Rock on baby, rock on, it never seems to turn out the way we want it.
Rock on baby, rock on, nice & steady.
Live your life never looking back and pick a place to go.
Then keep on rockin' 'til you can't rock no more.
